

Artist In Residence

Celeste Snowber

September 2023

Creative development in July and Aug. with performances Sept. 9,10,16 &17.

Please join Celeste Snowber on site at Darts Hill Garden. Celeste has worked to create a unique performance that uses dance, poetry and spoken word to highlight the beauty of the garden.

Celeste Nazeli Snowber, PhD is a dancer, poet/writer and an award-winning educator who is a Professor in the Faculty of Education at Simon Fraser University. Celeste has written extensively and her books include, Embodied inquiry: Writing living and being through the body, three collections of poetry and her most recent book is Dance, place and poetics: Site-specific performance as a portal to knowing. Celeste creates site-specific performances in the natural world, including botanical gardens and sites between land and sea.

.....
SOCIAL MEDIA

Follow Celeste on Instagram @ celeste.snowber

WEBSITE

Learn more about Celeste's work:

